

Hal Morpurgo

August 15, 1935 - September 25, 2007

Hal Rose Morpurgo passed on September 25th and he will be sadly missed by family, friends and co workers.

Hal was a high school and college athlete in New York, where he grew up. Hal was married shortly after college to Jane Sussman and together they created a family with 5 children Dave, Paul and Jul (twins), Wendy and Jon. They moved to Illinois and Hal and Jane were both teachers and spent their long summer vacations traveling and camping with family and friends.

Later in life Hal made his home in Roswell New Mexico, where he joined his sister, June Morpurgo. Since 2004 Hal worked at the J.O.Y. Center and they have embraced him as a family member. Hal delivered meals to seniors and he affected many people with his kind presence. Hal also loved playing music in local pubs where he would drop in and play his harmonica.

Private services will be held at a later date.

Cremation is under the Direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.
