“ Harold is my best friend ever he stayed with us most of this year he was so loving funny caring he was a artist from hell he loved to draw he worked in Santa fe making huge cooper sculptures very proud n strong man loved his Mom dearly in Redding California has a brother also n a wife Debra of 25 years he is gonna be missed dearly I pray someone has gotten ahold of his Mom so he can be taken home Harold had gotten real sick in October but wouldn't let it stop him from riding his bike wherever he needed to go. We love you Harold and Miss you so very dearly No more pain from others and games they play Your number 1 in my heart Thank for all the awesome memories you left me with in my Heart G
