“ So glad I got to spend time with our Uncle Harvey, my father, Joe Long's younger brother. So many laughs on the few visits I was able to make over the last several years. If he were working on days during my visit, he would make me get up at 6AM to chat and have coffee with him. If I couldn't visit, I would call a couple times a month. So glad I got to know him.

“ We were so sorry to hear about Harvey, So glad we got to see him in Moriarty for Aunt Bills funeral. Lots of fun times have been shared in our family. Harvey always thought my Dad (Uncle Joe) was great and the feeling was mutual. I know that all of you have a lot of wonderful memories to cherish as do we. We loved him, and he will always have a special place in our hearts. Love and God Bless, Alvin & Mary Ethel
