“ To the entire family of Henry Olguin, my sincerest condolences. God's Word, is that you will see him again one day, and that is the strength and hope of our faith. After all it is in that faith that our parents and grandparent taught us. I, do remember that. It has carried us through the valleys we've been through. I, also remember the faith that Dona Sostena & Don David, and your mom Louisa had. My mom, Gertrude Jaramillo was blessed with their friendship. God Bless and surround you with His love, Mary Jaramillo Sosa

We are so sad that you will not be able to love on your brother in this world any more. I know you two would love to share many more laughs.
