“ I am so sorry for your loss. May God's blessings bring you understanding and comfort during this most troubling of times. I am sorry that I didn't keep in contact with the family after my Aunt Opal's and Henry's Grandmother's death. Hopefully that will change in the future. If you need anything, please e-mail me the above address. Jimmy

“ Henry and I both worked in the J.P. White building these past several years. We had many spontaneous conversations as we walked to and from the parking lot. Henry always greeted me with a smile on his face and a warm handshake. He was always enthusiastic as to what the day would hold. I will miss those brief conversations and his friendship. I will keep his family in my thoughts and prayers.
