Herminia Juarez was born on May 29, 1954, to Jesus and Sipriana Gonzalez. She married Joel Juarez in Roswell, New Mexico, on December 10, 1975, and they spent 49 years loving and enjoying life with each other. Herminia spent her years as a homemaker, mother, mentor, friend, and loving member of this community.

Those left to treasure and cherish memories of Herminia eternally are her children (and spouse), Joel J. Juarez, Joel L. Juarez (Margie), Veronica L. Tarin (Manuel), Leslie A. Soto (Nicholis), Jerry R. Juarez, and Robert Juarez; eighteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; siblings, Jesus Gonzalez (Dora), Yolanda Gonzalez de Perea, and Blanca Alicia Gonzalez de Holguin; and many other beloved family members.

Herminia is preceded in death by her parents Jesus and Sipriana Gonzalez; sister, Estela Flores de Gonzalez; and brother, Roberto Gonzalez Acosta.

Herminia had a heart that never stopped giving. She cared deeply for everyone around her and showed her love in the most genuine way she knew—through food, laughter, and presence. She delighted in cooking for anyone who crossed her path, always making sure no one left her home hungry. She enjoyed visiting the casino, spending time with friends and family, and finding joy in the simple moments. Her faith was an important part of her life, and she loved going to church and offering support to others whenever she could. Herminia's sense of humor was unforgettable; she brought light and laughter wherever she went. She will be remembered for her generosity, her warmth, and the joy she shared so freely.

Herminia's family would like to thank the personnel who cared for her in and out of her times of need.

This tribute was written in Herminia's honor by her loving family.
