Ingeborg was born December 11, 1933, in Kiel, Germany to Ana Marie and Herman Bock. She immigrated at the age of 21 to the United States where she found herself in Detroit, Michigan. In 1975, her family was called to the Southwest and she alongside her family moved to Roswell, NM. She was quickly pulled into the culture, where she created and owned her own business Southwest Indian Jewelry of 25 years. She enjoyed creating jewelry and art, watching her grandchildren flourish, and lending a helping hand to others whenever she could. Over the years, she was always able to carry herself with true elegance and class. She will truly be missed.

Those left to cherish Ingeborg's memory are her children: Jay Hahn and spouse Ana Maese-Hahn, Scott Hahn and spouse Sue Hahn; grandchildren: Andrea Hahn- Marrujo and spouse Christian, Lauren Clark and spouse TJ, Erin Russell and spouse gunner, Joseph Hahn, and Victoria Hahn.

Special Thanks to Susie Curtis, for years of love, dedication, and friendship. You were truly a gift to Ingeborg's life. The staff at Mission Arch, especially Rebecca, for the love and care given to Ingeborg during her stay.

Ingeborg will be cremated and will later have her ashes spread in Sante Fe, NM in honor of her most fond memories. No services will be held at this time.
