“ Irene was a very strong woman who cared deeply for her family. Of note, she is also survived by grand-daughter Carey Arnold, mother of Aurelie J. Arnold (great grand-daughter); and Justine Marie Boren (great grand-daughter).

“ Aunt Irene was very special. She was like a second Mom to me. In the last ten years she gave me a lot of helpful advice on helping my adult children get through life in general. I am still using her advice today. We just have to be thankful for all the special memories and thoughts she left for all of us. Myron especially loved how she enjoyed hugging him--she said he was like a "big Teddy Bear". We will miss her but we have wonderful memories of her. Our prayers are with all of you as this is a difficult time for all. But there is no doubt she is in heaven dancing with the Angels. God Bless
