Celebrate Irvin's life by visiting www.andersonbethany.com to offer a memory or expression of sympathy for his family.

On February 9, 2003, Irvin was born in Chihuahua, Chihuahua, Mexico. He attended Apostolic Bible Church Concours Academy. Although he lived seven years of his life with cancer, Irvin was able to win that battle, however, he came down the flu, complications arose and was he unable to fight that illness. Irvin was a very happy child and loved by many people. He had a will to live despite the challenges he faced. Irvin liked going to horse races, drinking Coca Cola and going to Walmart and Garage Sales. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends, especially by all those fortunate enough to have known him.

Those left to cherish his memory are his parents: Manuel Gonzalez and Abigail Gonzalez; brothers: Bryan Perez, Eduardo Gonzalez and Manuel Gonzalez Jr; and his loving pet, Rockie.
