God Saw You

God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and He whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched you.

We watched you fade away.

Although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
hard-working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He chose to take the best.

It's lonesome here without you,
we miss you more each day.

Life doesn't seem the same since you have gone away.

When days are sad and lonely
and everything goes wrong,

We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer Up and Carry On"

Each time we see your picture
you seem to smile and say,

"Don't cry, I'm in God's hands, we'll meet again someday!"

“ I’m gonna miss our chats on the phone and her firm hugs when we’d go visit her in Roswell. I always felt a piece of my grandma (Carmen Salcido Guajaca) when I spoke to my Tia, like the wisdom in her advice, sharing special occasions with her, and the unconditional love she gave. Tia was a beautiful person inside and out, and she’s gonna be missed by all of us here in California. We love you Tia, and to the immediate family and close friends, we send our condolences and love!

“ Isabel was my helper when we were still able to take communion to Sunset Villa. She would gather all the Catholics who wanted to pray and receive Our Lord in the Eucharist. After our little prayer service she and I would sing for the group. I'm sure her friends there and I will miss her happy joyful presence there.
RIP Isabel!

“ Truly the best Tia we could have ever had. She was our family Matriarch. A very strong woman who had to bury all 4 of her sons. Eddie Aguilar, Steve Aguilar, Danny Aguilar & Sammy Aguilar. She also buried both brothers Juan Baca & Ralph Salcido. And all three sisters. Arcenia Ortiz, Carmelita Guajaca and my mom Flora S. Peyton. Tia always made time for each of us when it was possible. She always kept us in her prayers and became mother to us all. We Pray things will be better next April 14th (Her Birthday) so that we can all get together and Celebrate & Honor her Life. TIA, WE ALL LOVE YOU VERY MUCH. You meant so much to all of us. Your God Son, Michael Salcido

“ I remember Nina in my whole life since I was very small. And how all the years, year after year she always look the same. I remember going to visit her out in the Big Apple...the brown trailer.. the table in the kitchen, all her house things and catching butterfly's in the drive way Being with her at the White House on Chisum, the cactus in the yard, and watching her make tortillas.. learning/helping clean beans ...she had an oval table there...her coffee, her Fanny pack, her cigarettes when she still smoked, the way she smells...How she was always ready for the day jewelry/accessories to match every outfit..her prayers, the blankets and all the things she could make... Her skin was so soft, and the way her veins showed in her hands, I love her eye wrinkles when she smiled laughed and told stories.....I'm crying.
