“ Milo-Rosie and family: I am very sorry for the loss of Ish, so many good memories for sure. Rosie, you have been such a great mother and best friend to your son and I'll always remember that! My best memory was Ish running around Roswell High, that summer getting ready for football season; he inspired a lot of people. Ish you will be missed, Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.

“ Such a great friend!! Ish, I hope you know how much you helped me out when Ray was sick. You were my rock for those few days. I don't believe in coincidence, I believe you were supposed to be there through Ray's illness. It gave you two a chance to bond again, and that wasn't by chance. God is great and works in mysterious ways.

Rosie, Milo, and Angie we love you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so happy we were able to be there to help give strength during such a trying time. And we will always be here to help in anyway we can.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. I wish we could heal your hearts, but realize only God can do that. When people ask what they can do, you want to say, bring me my son, but you'll smile and say you're fine. I will know better. Just know so many are praying for your family, sending you love. We send our love and prayers, too.
