On August 8, 1961, J. Ruben was born to Maria Herrera Galindo and Everardo Molina Brito in Ojinaga, Chihuahua, Mexico. In his late thirties he purchased a small ranch with horses and roosters/chickens. He loved owning his quarter horses and was fortunate to win a few races both at the racetrack (Ruidoso Downs, The Downs Racetrack, and Sunland Park Racetrack) and local match races. He loved watching Horse Racing on TV and almost always got together with his wife and sons to see the Kentucky Derby the First Saturday in May. J. Ruben watched and liked all sports but really loved his soccer and cheered for his favorite soccer team which was Club America. He helped everyone and always said things how they were. Family was really important to him and almost every Saturday Night it was tradition to play loteria at the Molina's. Dad enjoyed springtime with Mom/Wife planting flowers and getting his sprinkler for the grass ready. He was the Go-To for making the asado for quinceanera's, Wedding's, or any other special occasion. Dad had a special way to carve up a watermelon in the July Heat that everyone around him enjoyed when it was their time to get a slice. In 2013 his first grand baby was born and he was super excited to be a grandpa, and yes made the asado for his grandbabies baby shower. Since then, in total he has three grand babies all boys who he loved. He was a Great Man and he left behind some really big shoes to fill. He just left and is already missed dearly.
