“ Since we were all starting the internet experience, many years ago with HTT and Hogtalk, all with the premise of helping a brother and or the regular guy to fix his own Harely, Our many friends all lending the information, sharing and camaraderie to the do-it yourselfer to instill the pride to all, in upgrading and or repair his or her own harley, One name comes to mind Spiderman! Today I learned a dear dear friend is gone. I will Miss Jim Boggio, Aka. Spiderman. The world doesn't know what a loss it has incurred. Jim Lived ,ate and breathed Harley's! He made me laugh one time till I almost pissed myself over the phone once. His seriousness of upgrades Fun and riding along with his open invitations to go out to see him on his own dime and an open heart, all over the sharing of the experience of what he was living, Some have taken him up on the offer, even to lend one of his own bikes to use etc. at no expense or questions asked to friends he met over the internet. he will be sorely missed. God Speed Spider. I am saddened to the core. With much respect and Love to him, Rob P. Aka. ~ FLHROB

“ I never knew him in person, he was on the Harley Tech Talk online. He loved his animal like I do, and his Harleys. We had a lot in common, and we used to e-mail each other. Several years ago, he mailed me a part that I needed for my bike, and only charged me for postage. It seemed like he was always helping others. It's been a long time since I've heard from him, but I knew he was busy. I was so shocked and sorry to hear of his accident. My condolences to his family and close friends.

“ It deeply saddens me to hear of Spideys passing, I considered him a great friend and have a hard time speaking of him in the past tense. The month I spent working in his shop was a pure joy and in that month I truly fell in love with New Mexico and became very close to my Amigo The Spider. He was more than a brother to me, He was a mentor, a father figure and at times just a good ear to hear my side of the story when no one else would listen. 250 words is not enough 2 million wouldnt come close to giving me enough to tell you how much I Love and how much I will miss him.
