“ Jim went with my husband, Max Young and I, doing Prison Ministry. He was always fun and sang beautifully. You will be missed and no one will ever know how many lives you touched, including mine.

God Bless your family.

“ Jim was my dear friend. A man who put anyone he met at ease with a smile and yes, a corny joke. Shopping at Wal Mart with him was an experience. He had a smile and a joke for anyone in his path and loved to make them smile or laugh. He might even remember to get everything on the list. A man of great faith, he made my faith even stronger and I know when it's our turn to go home he'll be there with a smile and a corny joke.
