My Dad

He isn't wealthy Or considered very great He is a man you either Love or Hate He isn't always patient Nor is he always kind There is one thing for certain He will always speak his mind

There is no mystery about him What you see is what you get If the truth is what you seek He will give it with no regret

There can be times he likes To gripe and complain But those who love him Have learned to take it the same

He can be quite loving When the situation calls And he is supportive When any of us falls

He taught us life can be cruel Don't give up without a fight Believe in yourself
And things will come out right

Never a hypocrite He practiced what he preached He taught us with faith
There is no goal we can't reach

Now that his life may be reaching the end He wants us to be happy and always smile He believes life is renewed We will see him again...in a little while

I wrote this poem I hope it doesn't make you sad But I just want you to know I love my Dad

“ Mary and Family, MY brother-in-law was a good friend. I enjoyed going hunting with him and just being around him. I am proud of the way he took care of his business and his family. I remember Jim and Dewey in my kitchen cooking breakfast one morning and Jim snuck up on Dewey and was leaning over his shoulder and said "What ya doing?" Scared Dewey to death!! He scattered eggs everywhere. Jim will always be in our hearts. We love you Mary and family. We enjoyed the time we spent with all of you in December. You are in our prayers Gary and Linda

“ I knew James since 1975 when we worked together at Coca-Cola. I will always be grateful to him as he helped me get that route-sales job. I remember the time that Boo-Hoo (David Taylor) and I challenged him and Rick to a basketball game. The bet was a case of beer. After we lost (it was Boo-Hoo's fault) we had to bring the case of beer to him and Rick and watched them drink it. I had a lot of memories of James playing softball but mainly of how smooth a route worker he was. I would sweat up a storm but he was always cool and would make that hard work seem effortless. Our deepest condolences go out to Mary and family.

“ Uncle Jim was an awesome man. When I lived in Roswell as a child, I was always over at the house hanging out with Uncle Jim, Aunt Mary and my cousins. Uncle Jim taught me how to camp and how to fish. I will always cherish our trips out to Peach Tree Canyon riding four wheelers, camping, and trying to hunt for turkeys. I will miss Uncle Jim and wish that I could be there to help my family get through this rough time. My thoughts and prayers are with my family and the entire Hernandez family. God bless you all during this trying time.
