

James Law

April 9, 1957 - February 26, 2015

James Law, 57, passed away on February 26, 2015 in Roswell. He was born on April 9, 1957 to Delbert Law and Nellie Proctor in Cleveland, OH. No services are scheduled, per Jim's wishes.

He married his childhood sweetheart, Connie Milan at the age of 17 on April 18, 1974 in Ashtabula, OH. Celebrating 40 years of marriage, James always said, "She was his soul mate".

Jim worked various jobs including; Chaves County road department, various oil fields, sandblasting and finally at Circle K as a manager for many years in Roswell and Ruidoso. His love was being with family, camping, Sunday dinners, reunions, anywhere his family and loved ones were gathered.

Preceding him in death were his parents, brother, Timothy D. Law and pets: Chopper and Bruce.

Surviving James are his wife, Connie; sons: Master Sergeant James M. Law Jr of Afganistan and Jeremy M. Law (Tanya) of Roswell; Ex-daughter in law, Stephanie Law of Houston, TX; his 5 angels on earth, granddaughters: Savanna L. Law, Brittany P. Law of Houston, TX, Breanna M, Bella M and Taylor M. Law of Roswell; brother, Jeffrey L. Law of Roswell; Uncle Johnny Proctor of Roswell; Aunt Jean Proctor of Ruidoso Downs, NM; cousins: Brenda Frost and Wade Proctor. Also surviving him a nephew, Erick D. Law of TX; two very special nieces he called daughters: Jessica M Morales and Amanda Fisher; two sister in laws: Ellen Karcutt of SC, and Bonnie Bryant of Ashtabula, OH.

Childhood friend Dwight Workmen; forever friends, Doug Wright and wife Carol all of Ashtabula, OH, Ruben Chasco of Idalou, TX, Richard and Bobbi of Charleston, TN and Bob Brown and wife Selma also survive him.

Jim was a very kind and gentle man, always trying to mend or save someone he knew, including animals. His friends and family would describe him as compassionate, relentless, selfless and easy going.
