

James Jack Nichols

October 20, 1927 - February 11, 2016

James (Jack) Nichols, 88, passed away February 11, 2016. He was born October 20, 1927, to Cecil Eugene Nichols and Opal McGuire in Doxie, Oklahoma.

Jack was proud to have served America during WWII and the Korean War as a Marine. Jack was a good friend who would give the shirt off his back to anyone who needed help. He was a loving father and doting grandfather. He especially enjoyed spoiling his grandchildren and his beloved dogs. His favorite pastime was fishing and telling stories about the ones that got away.

James is preceded in death by one grandson, Shane Gibson; parents, Cecil Nichols and Opal McGuire; brothers, Eugene Nichols and Guy Raymond Nichols and sisters: Floy Churchman and Bonnie Davis.

Those left to carry on James' heritage are his wife of 56 years, Juanita of the family home; children: Thomas Nichols, Deressa Mapp, Opal Gibson and James Nichols, all of Roswell; and sister, Wyenma Miller of California. Additional survivors include eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A military graveside service will be held in James' honor Friday, February 19, 2016, 1:00 PM at the General McBride Veterans Cemetery located at South Park Cemetery.

Anderson Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory is honored to be chosen to serve the Nichols family in their time of need.
