

Janis Lee

March 15, 1938 - April 27, 2024

Janis Lee, 86, of Roswell, NM, passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 27, 2024, at Hartfelt Manor. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Janis' family at www.andersonbethany.com.

A Funeral Service will be held for Janis at Bethel Baptist Church on Thursday, May 9, 2024, at 2 pm. Interment will follow at South Park Cemetery.

Janis was born Janis Marie Males on March 15, 1938, in Altus, OK, the only daughter to Joe and Aline Males. Janis married her husband Ed Lee on January 19, 1962, and as a military family they lived all over. She received her associate degree from ENMU. Janis had many interests including sewing, crafting, reading, cooking, and gardening. She loved dogs and cats, shopping, but most of all, her family. She was an outspoken, loving, and giving person. She was a two-time cancer survivor. A long-time member of Bethel Baptist Church, her church was very important to her.

Janis will be missed by her son, Richard, and his wife Donna; grandchildren: Jesse, his wife Adraine, Tony, and June; great-grandchildren: Brooklyn, Alexandra, Zach, Richard, and Joey; along with many other friends.

Preceding Janis in death are her parents: Joe and Aline Males; four brothers: Coy, Connie, Gilbert, and Paul; husband, Ed Lee; sons; Robert and Raymond

Lee; and most recently her two great-great grandchildren: Andrez and Adalina.

Janis' tribute was lovingly written by her family.

“ Oh Janis. You were definitely one of a kind and I loved every minute I got to spend with you. I will cherish all the laughter, the confidence you had in me, watching the Rifleman, Price is Right, feeding the stray cats (sorry Richard) and cooking your favorite, Chicken Fried Steak. You were a special gal to me and I will miss you.
