

Jared Tucker

April 11, 2016

Jared Tucker, 31, went to join his Lord and Savior on April 11, 2016. He was born December 7, 1984, to James and Della Tucker in Roswell, New Mexico.

An amazing father of two, Jared wanted to do the best for his children. He always found time for his children - one of their favorite activities was playing with Hot Wheels. As a young boy he sang "God Bless the USA" in Boy Scouts, he also sang and played the guitar. A man of great humor, he could imitate certain actors and comedians to make his family laugh. Also a romantic at heart, Jared just never found that 'right' someone.

The founder of Plains Valley Online News, he was very driven. A passion of Jared's was writing memoirs about his struggles in hopes of helping other people. As most of us do, Jared faced many inner battles. He wanted the public to understand that mental illness is a disease just like diabetes and heart disease.

Jared now walks on streets of gold with Jesus and the angels, free from the confines of his earthy being.

Preceding Jared in death were his paternal and maternal grandparents; aunt, Jeanette Hamrick and cousin, James Paul Langille.

Those left to cherish Jared's memories are his children: Katelynne and Michael Tucker; parents: James Sr and Della Tucker; brother, James Tucker Jr; sister, Jennifer Tucker; nephews, Julian and Adrian Espinoza; aunts and uncles: Sherry and Ricky Coats, Judy and Dave Hunt, Candace Robinson, Allen Greer, Genevieve Gill; cousins: Lynn Coats, Aaron Coats, Jeffrey Robinson, Robert Greer, Jessica Greer, Joey Greer, Maisie Gill and Nolan Gill. Additionally surviving Jared are numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends from across the country.

A memorial service will be held Friday, April 15, 2016, 1:00 PM at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel, Pastor Jack Ferguson of Tinnie Baptist and Pastor Mark Green of Harvest Ministries will officiate.

“ Jared and I went to school together in 98 at Gallatin Co Middle School. After I left on Jan 1st 99 after my best friend passed a couple of months prior (he’s the one who told me she’d passed) we kept in touch but eventually it fizzled out as I moved to Oklahoma and he was still in Warsaw. My adult life I’ve spent trying to find him again. Unfortunately, I found him.... Here. My heart sank immediately. I hate that he’s gone. Love to your family from the Bristows. -Christina Bristow

“ My sincere prayers for God's love to give Jared's family comfort now and in the days to come. Jared would come to visit me in the ENMU Golden Library where I continue to work while he was a student here and in the years that followed. I always enjoyed our visits, and we had some very sincere and inspirational talks about his life. I really tried to encourage him about the positive prospects for his life and what a wonderful example he was to many others. I admired his wanting to do his best and that he wouldn't settle for doing a mediocre job at anything he attempted. He even did a feature article in the Portales News Tribune on me in June, 2010, which I considered a great compliment. I'm sorry Jared couldn't love himself and have the admiration for his talents that others had for him. We will all miss him very much.

“ I remember when we were once children, at the age of only 8 when living on Curran street when you and the family would come visit us, we would play video games, play out in the front yard and run around playing tag. And the time when we would all go to the park on Wilson and Planz here in Bakersfield over by the mall and play basketball together, you will be missed always and forever cousin. May God rest your soul in peace.

“ Jared Tucker was the person who brought the Tucker family into our lives. He was as unique as they come. He would dumpster dive and we thought he would be the Country's leading Garbologist. He had an infectious smile and a beautiful family. Thankfully, Facebook and technology gave us the ability to breach the miles when they returned to Roswell. He will forever be missed and was loved more than he knew. May his loved ones find peace through this most difficult time. My heart is saddened by this news but there is one more shining star in the heavens because Jared is there. Hugs to all. - Lynn Coutermash

“ Della and James.....my heart hurt knowing the pain you are experiencing right now. Being separated from our babies is the hardest part of being a parent. A feeling you never wish on anyone, but you learn to live with and survive. Thank God we share in the knowledge of knowing it is truly just a temporary situation and we will be reunited with them in Glory. My sincerest condolences and prayers for God's peace and comfort to hold you up for the coming days, months and years.

“ "Jared now walks on streets of gold with Jesus and the Angels, free from the confines of his earthly being".....

Jared, you were the "gold" for many of us who knew you. I was saw you as a strong, eager, independent man who's head was full of dreams and goals for his future. Your compassion for people was overwhelming and the values and ethic towards their pain was respected and protected by you. You were an amazing part of this community and I want to thank you for sharing a bit of your life with me.

May God cover your children's hearts with peace, love, and understanding and forever protect them.

Fly free.... Into the arms of Jesus.... Forever in His comfort and love. Rest now.... You are forever free. ❤️
