There will be a Rosary and Memorial Service at St. John's Church on Friday, April 19, 2024. The Rosary will begin at 9:30 am with the Memorial Service to follow at 10:00 am. Interment will follow at South Park Cemetery.

Javier Harvey Salinas Jr. (Hoover) was born on September 27, 1996, to Esther and Harvey Salinas in Roswell, New Mexico. He attended John Paul High School in Las Cruces, New Mexico where he graduated. Harvey was a very caring person and always made people laugh. He had many friends that he considered to be family and that he loved to be around. Most importantly he had his Mom and Daughter who needed him more than anything. Harvey will be missed by his family and friends.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Harvey are his daughter, Elizabeth Salinas; his mother and father: Esther and Harvey Salinas; siblings: Freddy Salinas, Gabriel Hernandez, Eric and Victoria, Jeremiah, Frank, George, and Marco; nephews: Josiah, Jordan, and Jeremiah; niece, Kianna; daughter's mother, Angela; Harvey's two favorite cousins that he loved very much and were special to him, Robert, and Fabian Villa.

Harvey is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents: Mr. and Mrs. Luciano Hernandez; paternal grandparents: Mr. and Mrs. Guadalupe; Salinas brothers; Guadalupe Salinas, and Nico Lucero; Jesse Bejarano; and uncle, Freddy Salinas.

Those to serve as Pallbearers are Elizabeth, Fabian, and Robert.

Honorary Pallbearers will be George, Marco, and Jeremiah Lucero

Harvey's tribute was lovingly written by his family.
