“ When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, Why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little--but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me--but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, And each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, Go to the friends we know. And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, Miss me--but let me go. ~ May you rest in peace, Jean. Your are free of pain and sickness.

“ I didn't grow up in Roswell, NM. I grew up in Silver City, NM. My Dad (Jack Clement), mom, sister and myself went a few times to Roswell to visit family. I feel blessed to have had such a loving, caring aunt as Jean. Aunt Jean you will dearly be missed. I love you always and forever. Save a spot for us all in heaven. You are reunited with your sisters Irene, Norma and Dianne, your parents and other family and friends who have gone on before you. You are now at peace. No more hurting.
With all my love,
Your neice Sharon Clement
