“ I am deeply saddened that Jennifer's time was tragically cut so short. She was one the very few people that I could relate to in the conservative bubble of Roswell, NM.

I hope the years since we lost touch were wonderful and full of happy experiences.

“ I miss our chats - we had a lot of fun in IRC over the years. My condolences to Barbara, Shelby, Justin, and all the rest of the family - I know it's a deep and painful loss for all of you. She left her mark on the world, though. Her quote on Facebook was extremely appropriate: "life is short, make it count while you still can" She did.

“ Jenn, From the moment we met I fell in love with you. I am so proud to be your fiance. I wish we could have been married but that is just a piece of paper. Everyone knows that we were already married...where it counts..in our hearts. They saw it everyday. You felt our love everyday and you made me a better man for having you in my life. Until we meet again...I love you Jenn...yours always...Clay...

“ To Justin and family, I share your sympathies. Jennifer was a wonderful person and will be truly missed. We met while going to college and met up again working in the same line of work, but different agencies. She was a great friend. I wish we had kept more in touch, I will miss her a lot. But she is one person that will always live in my heart. I feel that I have lost more than a friend, I feel like I also lost a daughter.

“ Crews/Miller/Noles Families:
Barbara, Ruth my sincere condolences to all of you for the loss of your beloved Jennifer. I remember Jennifer when she was just a young little girl. May you find peace in knowing that she is not suffering and that she is now in a better place in God's heavenly kingdom. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time.

“ To the family of Jennifer....
I am so sorry for your loss. I have known Jennifer for a few years. I first met her when she moved in next door to my parents house. I came to find out that she was the grand-daughter of Mrs. Crews, my first grade teacher at Missouri Ave., many years ago. Jennifer was a very nice person and I am saddened for her loss. My prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

“ Nic, I will miss you so. I wish we had had a chance for that talk like we said we would. I guess time ran out. I am thinking of you as an angel, as you had been for so many in your life, still helping others and caring about everyone more than yourself. I would like to extend my sympathies to Jenn's family and friends. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Nic, Take care of those wings my friend. I love you.

“ Jen - I love you so much my friend. I have struggled all week to find the right words, and they still won't come. YOU know what you mean to me, and I will forever know what I meant to you. I miss you being here, and being able to call or text at all hours of the day and night. I miss your sense of humor, and the way you tell it like it is. I miss knowing that my "tude twin" is sitting there whenever I need her. I miss YOU. Fly free from pain, and enjoy the peace you now have, and which you deserve so much darlin. Keep Cory out of trouble, okay? I love you, Nic.
