

Jennifer Deantha Morro

June 3, 1979 - July 26, 2019

JENNIFER DEANTHA MORRO, 40, passed away on Friday, July 26, 2019. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with the Morro family at www.andersonbethany.com.

SERVICES: There will be a Memorial Service honoring Jennifer at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home on Tuesday, August 6, 2019, at 11:00 AM.

On June 3, 1979, Jennifer was born to Pete and Pamela Baker in Roswell, New Mexico. Her faith was strong and always important, no matter the struggles she had in life. Jennifer was a kind-hearted mother who loved her daughters more than anything. She lived a life of adventure and would give the shirt off her back to anyone if they needed it, even if she had nothing.

SURVIVORS: Jennifer is survived by her daughters: Miranda Morro, Savannah Morro, Lilly Mohr; granddaughter on the way, Scarlett Rayn Curtis; brother, Aaron "Bubba" Burrell; aunts and uncles: Susan Rowland and Jimmy Burrell; niece, Hannah Burrell; and close friends: Angie and Aaron Alberts, and their daughters.

PRECEDED: Preceding Jennifer in death: her mother, Pamela Baker; grandparents: A.D. Burrell, and Lavada Stinett; uncle, Robert Burrell; and aunt, Judy Orlean Burrell.

“ Jennifer I can't believe that such an evil person has done this to you, especially you. I only met you a year ago when I came back to Roswell, but you were such a loving and wonderful friend to Jeff and PaulPete. You were at our house Thursday nite and helped Jeff with the peach pies and showered. Thought we would see you the next night, but it came and went and you didn't come by. You had gone on a much longer journey, home to our Lord. Have you met my sons yet? You will I'm sure!! We will miss you dearly Jennifer and your wonderful stories of light travel. Fly with the angels where you belong, this world was much too harsh for you. We will always think fondly of you and love you to Jupiter and back!! Love, Trudy and Jeff
