“ Jerry was a precious man, he was kind, loving and giving. I will never forget the day we met my heart was broken from so many family heartaches and he told me out of the blue. Give it to God and he will get you through it. It was as though an angel was sent to me. After that he and I shared a Christian friendship and even though we were at work we prayed together and shared Gods love. I'm glad I got to meet such a wonderful person and share a friendship in Christ.

“ My Thoughts and Prayers go out to the family and friends of Jerry. I only met Jerry a couple of times through my Brother-in-law Phillip Chapman and Sister Cindy Chapman, As I remember he was a easy going man, full of love and compassion for his family and fellow man. He will be greatly missed by all that knew him. May God be with each of you during this time of grief and sorry, and may you remember that Jerry is now in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ with Phillip and the rest of the family, he is in a better place and will help prepare for the day that you are reunited with him. Sincerely Myra Phegley Keller

I am so thankful that I seen you in Artesia, and I told you about me having to take Victoria to Lubbock for Diabetes, you told me to stay strong and god would heal her, well he did! And I'm glad I got to hug you and tell you I love you but I didn't get to tell you bye and that will weigh on my heart forever..
