“ Dear Chad and Family; I was so sad to hear of the news that your father has passed. I know it was a long unfair struggle, and he is now free. Please know that we are thinking of you and know what a difficult time this is for all of you. Please know that your in our hearts and prayers as you walk along this difficult path of life. We are never prepared and I know that heartbreak of losing your dad. Fondly,
Mary and Mark

“ Jerry became a good frind of mine when he assumed management of a bank here in Alamogordo. He was the most knowledgable, imaginative, pro-active and experienced banker Alamogordo has had in many decades. When he was replaced in that position, Alamogordo lost a lot. Now we all have lost more with his passing beyond the reach of our lives.
