“ We are so sorry for your loss. Jerry will be greatly missed. He was so kind and considerate and such a precious soul. He was just one of those people who made you smile because he was always so upbeat and loved life. Whenever we would see him, he never once failed to ask how the family was doing. That was just Jerry, life wasn't about him...he always made it about others. He must have ridden his gray mare a million miles. Boy was she broke. We remember that he would ride her for a while, and then let her graze. What a good life she had...being Jerry's horse. And now, he is riding her once again in heaven with our Lord. We're sure he's teaching the Lord a thing or two about breaking horses. Many waves were exchanged down on Main Street on my way to work in the mornings. Oh, how I'll miss that. Rest in peace, sweet Jerry, rest in peace.

“ Jerry had the most beautiful soul and infectious smile of anyone I ever met. I knew him most of my life and never encountered him without parting with a smile on my face. When you had Jerry as a friend, you had a friend for life. He was always eager to lend a helping hand ... never wanting anything for himself. His reward was the knowledge that he had helped someone in need. Although the Good Lord called one of his precious angels home, he will be greatly missed.
