On September 27, 1943, Jesse Earl Douglas was born to Herman and Jessie Allen-Douglas in Hennessey, Oklahoma. He attended Booker T. Washington High School in Enid, Oklahoma and East High School in Wichita, Kansas. He enlisted in the United States Marine Corp, at the age of 17, on 20th of November 1961 and served until the 9th of May 1966. During the time he was serving his country he was

was our “fact checker” in both family and spiritual matters within the family.
Earl, as he was called by close family members and friends, loved all types of gospel music, sports, board games and most of all, Earl loved Jesus. He will be sorely missed by his family and friends.

Jesse Earl Douglas was the third child and third son born to our parents. There were eventually nine of us.

Most times, Earl exhibited a solemn personality, but he also appreciated - and joined in - family humor. He was a loyal brother and in our Portland, Oregon, years, Earl flew in from Oakland, Cal, to celebrate birthdays and family reunions with our clan.

In latter years, he was the first one of us to relocate to Roswell, New Mexico, to explore conditions related to interited land from Grandfather Lloyd Allen.
