Life Story

Jessica was born on May 11, 1985, to Joe and Karen Sultemeier in Dallas, Texas. She attended Duncanville High School and later graduated from the University of Texas at Arlington and continued her studies at Southern Methodist University. On July 4, 2020, she married the love of her life, Blake Morris Womack, in Midlothian, Texas.

In October of 2020, Blake and Jessica moved to New Mexico. She loved the clean air, small town living and of course the mountains. They resided in Roswell, New Mexico until her passing.

A devoted member of the Anglican and Episcopal Church, Jessica lived a life guided by compassion, service, and faith. She was a proud member of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star New Mexico, where she served as Grand Librarian. Her love for the arts shone through her involvement with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra Choir, Family Musical Theater of Lancaster, Love Your City Theater of Cedar Hill, and the Way Way Off Broadway Theatre of Roswell.

Jessica dedicated herself to supporting others through charitable work, including her service with the American Association of People with Disabilities and the Wounded Warrior Project, where she encouraged and advocated for recently amputated veterans and civilians. She also served with the New Mexico Order of the Eastern Star, Roswell Chapter #10, participating in charitable efforts throughout the state.

Jessica's passion for life, her perseverance, and her gentle kindness touched everyone who knew her. She will be deeply missed and forever loved.

“ Jessica was my childhood best friend and I have so many fond memories of our time together. We spent summers together swimming in her pool, going fishing, acting out movies while we watched them, celebrating birthdays together, and just being kids. Thanks for being my friend Jess, you are missed.

“ Working with Jessica really put an impact in my Life. At a point in my life where I was reluctantly trying to regain my Faith in God, I was called to audition for a role for the show Singin in the Rain. When I came in, I was thinking that I was being cast as an ensemble/ chorus character. To my Surprise, she cast me as one of the main leads in the show! And from day of rehearsal to closing night and strike, doing this show was one of the Best Experiences I ever had! Not only did she introduce me to Love Your City Theater but it also introduced me to Trinity Church! How she directed me, her skillful and innovative techniques combining film and stage together, her fun loving Spirit, Collaboration and Leadership put a huge blessing in my Heart. The Experience of working with her, along with the rest of the cast and crew of that show, gave New Light to my Life, Restored my Spirit that I had lost a few years prior and helped me Regain my Faith in God!

Jessica had become one of the main catalyst of me regaining my Faith in God, coming back to Church and finding my own Church Home. She had become an Inspiration to me both as an Actor and an Artist. And I will Forever Thank her for helping reigniting that Light that was missing for several years. As she has now gained her Wings and is One with the Force, may she Now and Forever be a Blessing and Inspiration to those who seek Light in the darkness.

God Bless You Jessica and May the Force be with You! Forever and Always! 🙏🙏🙏

“Tay and I will never forget all the fun memories spent around a gaming table with Jess, the laughter, the tears, and the learning moments. She brought to life so many wonderful characters and constructed so many amazing moments with friends. She was a brilliant storyteller, phenomenal vocal talent, a steadfast defender of those she cared for, and above all her many other qualities she was a great friend. She will be dearly missed and never forgotten. What a blessing is it to have known her, a truly unique soul. She has been granted her wings and her eternal reward. We are so grateful to have called her friend.”
