“ She was the mom to me . she use to tell people this is my daughter. One day a nurse told her that's your daughter? To which she replied yes it is. The nurse say I didn't know she don't look like the rest of your family. The mom than says well that's because she looks like her daddy. She is an amazing Lady that showed me nothing but love. I am forever blessed to have has her touch my life and heart I am a better person for having here in my life. Always in my heart and on my mind. I love you mom and I will miss you. God speed
