“ Dad, I miss you very much. I will cherish the memories we made together. We always had a blast together. I remember making heart shaped tortillas for Valentine's Day, and hiding them from Great-Grandma Minnie...so she wouldn't get mad we were playing with the food. I remember our random road trips, just because you felt like going somewhere...anywhere, and you'd sing to me the whole way. We would do whatever my heart desired, I was so spoiled. You would always keep a candy stash for Ariaah, and sugar her up before coming home. She loves PEZ now because of you. I always loved that you just popped in, never expected it. I miss your laugh. I miss your voice. I miss your hugs. I miss your art. I miss your singing. I love you like a circle Dad. I can't believe it's almost been five years. Time hasn't made it easier...in fact I think about you every minute of every day. Thank you for watching over me and my baby. Te amo por siempre.

“ "What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget". You will be truly missed Jesse but I know you are safe in the hand of God and with your Uncle Larry. My deepest sympathy to Clara & Family, and to my brother Jesse.

“ I meant jesse in a communication class in college and we also went to the same church. He was a great man and someone that i could talk to about anything and always knew how to make it better. He was a great listener and talker, he had great stories to tell, my daughter loved when we would hang out with him even when all we did was watch tv. My condolences go out to his family and friends. It was a blessing to have him come into my life.

“ Words can't possibly express the heartache & pain we feel but we know to rely on God to comfort us & give us strength.

Jesse, Where do I begin...you were always such sunshine to me. No matter what the circumstances, you always insisted to think of the positive & that tomorrow would be a brighter day! I'll never forget that you never had a negative thing to say about anyone from the day I met you when we were only 13 years old. (such a wise soul for a teenager! lol) Over the many years that we've stayed in touch, it never seemed like years had passed since our last conversation because you were always in our hearts so when we spoke, it didn't take long to catch up. I have all treasured memories that will keep your smiling face in the corner of my mind forever. With all of the goals we talked about, you never ceased to amaze me with your accomplishments overcoming the obstacles that may have deterred someone else. I always said, I'm only a phone call away & you managed to make those calls no matter how much time was in between, I always knew I would hear from you soon..I will no longer receive your calls. That breaks my heart. Smile down on all of us & know that you are very loved & missed by everyone who loved you. Rest in peace sweet Jesse. Give us all the strength we need to keep on & to make you proud.

All of our love, Lori & family
