On July 4, 1986, Guerito was born to Abelardo M. Marquez and Beatrice Fuentez Marquez in Roswell, New Mexico, where he graduated from Goddard High School. Jesus was one of a kind and was always there to lend a helping hand to whoever needed it. He never met a stranger and would give anyone whatever he had at the moment to offer. Guerito was the son, uncle, cousin, brother, and friend you could always count on anytime, especially to babysit. He enjoyed building a bond with all of the kids, as he, himself was the biggest kid at heart, is one of many ways to describe Guerito.

The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to Guerito. He loved to go fishing, listen to the music of all types. While Guerito was indoors, he enjoyed watching his favorite cartoons with a bowl of cereal in hand. He found happiness in spending quality time with his family and friends. During Guerito's lifetime, he loved collecting anything that was Superman. His pleasant, goofy personality was contagious to everyone he met. We are all going to miss him incredibly—Guerito’s presence, humor, and, most importantly, his love for us all.

“ So many memories we shared growing up. My fondest memory is when we would stand on the couch looking out the front window watching Priscilla and Leroy walk to school, so sad and wondering why we couldn't go too. You were always there when I needed you, no questions asked , all you would say every time is, “you have to come get me though.” One of a kind with your goofy attitude and nerdy ways, but that's who you were. Rest in Paradise, until we meet again. I Love you and miss you so much already Guerithee always your favorite cousin- Melanie ❤️💔

“ Our deepest condolences to the family, Guedito will be missed, he and our son Herni grew up together. I can see them in our driveway playing basketball, and then he would stay for supper. He was like part of our family. He was always so courteous. He would knock on our door and say he was Robin, looking for Batman(Herni). Prayers from Nando and Angie Herrera

“ We have known Guerito all his life. He was such an endearing boy bringing me yellow dandelion flowers. As he grew up, so did his sweetness & caring. Always offering to help carry in groceries, always greeting you in public no matter who he was with. He was a great friend to all our children , as well as everyone in the neighborhood. Guerito was a sweet man with a sweet soul. He was so loved & will be greatly missed by us & everyone. Love Linda & Blaine
