Maria was born in Estancia, New Mexico on May 22, 1956, to Secundino Hurtado and Juanita Garcia whom both preceded her in death.

As District Manager of the Salt Water Project, Jesusita Maria's mentorship and her care for her personnel was a key to the project's success. Upon retirement, Maria spent much of her quality time at any bingo establishment she could possibly find. Her smile would lighten a room and her hugs were full of love. Be careful to never block her car in the driveway when it was time for Bingo.

"Mom is such a special word. The loveliest I've ever heard. A toast to you above all the rest. Mom you're so special and simply the very best."

Those left to cherish Maria's memory are her husband, Frank Alvarado of Roswell, New Mexico; two sons: Freddie Martin Sedillo Jr, Christopher John Sedillo; siblings: Avellino (Ray) L. Hurtado of Roswell, New Mexico, Berlinda

A. Hurtado of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Cecilia T. Hurtado of Millington, Tennessee, Ana M. Hurtado of Alamogordo, New Mexico, Jose P. Hurtado of Rio Rancho, New Mexico; and numerous grandchildren; great-grandchildren; godchildren; nieces and nephews.

“ Although it's been decades I've never forgotten that beautiful smile, that contagious laugh and those mesmerizing eyes! You were without a doubt my absolute favorite sister-in-law and I wish things would've turned out different so that we could have gotten to know one another better in our "old age". 😊 Nevertheless, I'm thankful that Frank stood beside you to the very end and gave you that happily ever after that you so deserved. I miss the boys. I so love "my" Martin, always will, he is my brother all over again. I've thought about you so much over the years up until last week, so this came as a heartbreaking shock to me. Rest in peace Maria until we meet again cuñada!
