Joe Lozano was born in Roswell, New Mexico, on January 29, 1967. He was the second of four siblings. At the age of 42, Joe met and married his beautiful wife, Rosemary. He was married to his loving wife for eight years. His greatest joys were taking his grandchildren to yard sales, flea markets and spending time with family. Joe's friendliness and outgoing nature left an impact on anyone who met him. There was never a dull moment when Joe was around. He lovingly supported his family and was willing to face any challenges that came along. Joe's presence will be missed by his family and friends.

Those left to cherish Joe's memory are his mother, Adelina Lozano of Roswell, New Mexico; wife, Rosemary Lozano of the family home; son, Daniel Lopez and wife, Ashley of Killeen, Texas; son, Christopher Lozano and wife, Madison of Austin, Texas; daughter, Samantha Camacho and husband, Angel of Roswell, NM; daughter, Geneva Madrid and husband, Ramon of Killeen, Texas; daughter, Tiffany Lozano and husband, Louis of Killeen, Texas; daughter, Jasmine Wright and husband, Ray Ray; son, Robert Silva and wife, Amillaly of Killeen, Texas; daughter, Destiny Doram of Killeen, Texas; brother, Louis Lozano Jr. and wife, Erika of Copperas Cove, Texas; brother, Gary Lozano and wife, Patricia of Moore, Oklahoma; brother, Daniel Lozano and wife, Mercedes of Moore, Oklahoma. Joe's legacy includes thirteen grandchildren and his faithful companion Suzy Q.

He was preceded in death by his father, Louis Lozano Senior.

Pallbearers are: Daniel Lopez, Christopher Lozano, Robert Silvas, Erik Lozano, Isaac Lozano, Augustine Lozano, Andrew Lozano, Gary Lozano, Jacob Lozano, Louis Lozano III and David Servantez

You ruin lives and devastate families.

Leaving more questions than answers.

You took my grampo, and now my dad.

I guess you just don't mess with cancer.

The strongest men I've ever known with lots of pride in their hearts; reduce to nothing.

Family crying, Going through pain in the dark.

They fought so hard, didn't show the pain, till you finally knocked them down.

I hate you, cancer, go away, no one wants you around.

I love you, Joe Daddy and Grampo.
