“ I didn't know John for very long but in the short time I met him my thoughts were that he was a gentle soul and very kind natured man who sought God. I count it a privilege to have met him and his precious sister Melissa. What a comfort and blessing to know that he turned his heart and life to Jesus! It's our hearts' condition before God, in the end, that matters most! God help us to be faithful to the end to reap the joy of God's beautiful mercy and love!
