“ I knew John for many years working with him at TMC and coaching at Lions Hondo in 1990 and 1991. He had a great sense of humor and was a good coach. Thank you for coaching my daughter in the Lions Hondo Pee Wee's. I will always be in debt and gratitude. To his sons and grandchildren, I hold a great respect for your father and grandfather as a man of his word.

Rest In Peace My Friend

“ I would like to send thoughts and prayers to my family in this tough time. I know uncle John loved his kids and grandkids more than anything. I wish for peace in this time as that's what he would want. I remember the great times at birthday parties and holidays we all spent together. He was a geat dad and grandpa and will be missed. Love you guys.

“ Kermode Family.
So sorry to hear of John's passing, Joe and I always had a lot of respect and love for John. He was a great person, and we always had a lot of enjoyment when he was with us. We have not seen him in a few years, but the good times he shared with our family will never be forgotten. God bless and keep all of you.
