Oh My love, my John, how I miss you! I can't believe it's already been a month. These last few years with you have been the best of my life. I miss hearing your voice call out "Mama, I'm home", that little voice you used whenever you teased Paco about me being your girl, and dancing to "Wagon Wheel" with you. I miss cooking for and with you. I miss the joy, happiness, laughter and love you brought into my life, but I will hold the memories we made forever in my heart. I know that your life wasn't always easy, but you can rest now, believing that you gave life, and those you loved, your best.

We love you and we miss you Papa Monkey!

“ Rest now Uncle John.
No more need to be tired as you rest.
No more pain or confusion in this life.
You can be at peace.

I remember when I was little and we would go to visit you and my aunt nancy, in your little blue house and we would get so excited to see you. As we got older we saw less and less of you but the times we did were filled with you cracking jokes on people and our laughter from it. There were good times to remember. Ill hold on to that.

Rest now.

We love you, Tio.

Now be at peace, forever in God's Loving Arms. It is indeed glorious that He collects our tears as prayers...
