

Johnny Noriega

July 27, 1938 - February 11, 2016

Johnny Noriega, 77, of Roswell, NM, passed away on Thursday, February 11, 2016. He was born on July 27, 1938, in Alamogordo, NM, to Marcelino Noriega and Esperanza Ponce De Leon.

After graduating high school, Johnny worked in construction for 35 years.

As the owner of the town Ramon, NM, Johnny was the owner of "The Ramon Bar". Johnny liked to play the guitar, so much in fact, that his nickname was 'Johnny Guitar'. He had lots of friends and was loved by all who met him. A good family man, he was particularly happy when he was spending time with his children. Johnny laughed all the time.

Preceding Johnny in death are his wife, Dora; parents, Marcelino and Esperanza; son, Larry; brothers, Marcelino and Charlie and sister, Patsy.

Those left to carry on Johnny's heritage are his companion, Linda; sons: Jerry and wife, Celia; Manny and wife, Janet; daughter, Diana and husband, Emery; step-son, Jesus; brother, Ernesto and wife, Sol; sisters: Rosie, Ruth, and Judy and husband, Norbert; brother-in-law, Herbert. Johnny is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and cousins.

The Noriega family would like to thank Johnny's close friend Albert.

Graveside services will be held Wednesday, February 17, 2016, 9:00 AM at South Park Cemetery.

Anderson Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory is honored to be chosen to serve the Noriega family in their time of need.
