AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles

when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

“ JoLisa. Sweet JoLisa. I will forever cherish the memories we have. You were always laughing with me and we never shared a dull moment, whether it was you and David trying to teach me to translate, which never ended without a good laugh, or the silly arguments about the Broncos and Cowboys. I will always be grateful that I was blessed to have met such a caring, selfless person. I miss you so so much.
