Tears drop like falling rain, Holding a picture to ease the pain. Crying to the moon as it leaves the sky, Looking in the mirror just wondering why, Holding your picture close to my heart, Telling myself don't fall apart. Hoping and praying this wasn't true, But remember "MIKEY" We will always love you! – Only God Can Judge Me-

“ You were so precious as a baby, always smiling. You were a brother to me, God I wish I could have spent more time with you. The last phone conversation we had, you missed your mom and family and was going home. You said 'I love you cuz'. I love you Mikey! You are an angel now. Watch over JJ, Susanna and Daniel family. I pray we all see you again someday.

“ The last time we talked it was next time that you were going to come to see our new home and kick it with me and the family and we said it all to casually without stopping to think if there would ever be a next time. I now know that time will come again when we meet before our Lord. My Mikey I am going to miss you so much and don't want to face the fact that I will never get to hear that sweet giggle of yours and see that sunshine of a smile you always had. I love you very much primo and may you rest in peace.

“ I Know that no words can make this time any better, but we are here if you guys need us. Such a beautiful young man called home too soon. I only think of a very funny, mischievous little boy when I think of Mikey. I will always have the memory of his beautiful smile.

“ I want to say to the family of jose miguel "mikey" Chavez that I am so sorry to hear about mikey. I recently was hangnout at a mutual friend of ours and seen him for the first time in years. They were play wrestling and even when they were goin all out with his strength to pin him he had a smile and laughing the whole time. Then he would want to do fades for five dollars. I had recently lost my little brother and I know theres nothing anyone can say to take the pain away but he would want you all to be happy and to always remeber him. He is a great guy to be around. I will miss him dearly.

“ As we began playing sports together as kids, you shined as being the hardest hitter on the team. As years went by and more memories took place, you shined in being a big part of my life and I thank you for being there for me. You were like a brother to me. You being gone hasn't set in with me. I keep thinking I will drive by your Grandmas and Grandpas house and see you, wishing this isn't real. Anybody that ever had the privledge to know you, will know that you will do anything for them. I love you my Brother. I will miss you dearly.

“ I was Mikey's second grade teacher. Among all the students I have taught, Mikey was one of my favorites. We had a special relationship - we were friends. He always brightened my day with a big smile and a hug. He knew I wanted to help him learn to read and WE DID IT. God be with you all during this difficult time. Remember all the good times you had together. Mrs. Farley

“ I am so sorry about what happened to Mikey. I will always have fond memories of him playing with my children when they were young. I too lost one of mine a year ago. Please talk about Mikey with each other. It helps with the grieving process. It is too hard to try to cope with it on your own. There are support groups and counseling available when you're ready.

“ Just wanted to let you guys know that our thoughts are with you during this extremely difficult time. It seems like just yesterday that Mikey and Donald were playing ball without a care in the world. God called Mikey home early for a reason. He was an outstanding athlete and a special young man with a great personality. There are no words that can be written that will make things any easier. Just know that there are many hearts in Roswell breaking right along side yours. Our prayers and condolences go out to all of you. God bless you and we love you.
