God, Take This Child.... By Nancy Scott Sweet child whom we never really got to know, It's hard for us to let you go. We waited and we wanted you. We had so many dreams for you. We think of smiles we'll never see. We think of events that will never be. There will be no first steps and no first teeth. There is only a void and our own grief. We planned to take you to places far and near. We yearned to keep you safe and free from fear. We hoped to show you much of your new world. We wanted to teach you as your life unfurled. It's hard to understand why you, our baby, died. We feel so numb right now, many tears we've cried. We have so many questions and no answers seem to come. We tried so hard to save you; nothing could be done. God, we stand before you broken-hearted and ask you to heal these lives that must be parted from this little one we can no longer hold, who will always be a part of us, even when we're old. God, take this child in your loving arms. No more can he suffer any harm. Bless him always and bless us too. Be with us and help us to make it through.

“ Monica I send my Love with Deep Sympathy. God was blessed you with a beautiful Angel who only was with you for a short period of time and I could not imagine what you are going through. There are things that happen in our lives that we will never understand, but just remember God has the answer to all our prayers. We might not understand him at times, and we might not agree with the decision he has made to take a Loved One away from us, but our children our babies are Gods. We were blessed with them and have gotten chance to experience and learn how to love unconditionally, but when he feels like he wants his baby back he is going to take him back home. It's our destiny, if you need anything you know I am hear for you just call, Luv You Girl & God Bless Yvette N. Leos
