

Josephine "Lucy" Merryfield

March 24, 1938 - July 21, 2018

It is with great sadness and heavy hearts that the family of Josephine (Lucy) Merryfield, 80, of Fort, Sumner, New Mexico, has entered rest on Saturday, July 21, 2018, at home surrounded by her loved ones. Honoring Joan's request, a private family service will be held. Celebrate Joan's life by visiting www.andersonbethany.com to offer a memory or expression of sympathy for her family.

She was born and raised in Fort Sumner, New Mexico, to Frutoso and Juanita Trujillo. Joan married the love of her life, Bob Merryfield on December 23, 1958, and was happily married for forty-nine years. Together they ran the business "Rite Way" Insulation in Roswell, New Mexico, for twenty-five years. Joan enjoyed playing the piano and listening and dancing to Elvis Presley and Patsy Cline on her record player. She was a diligent wife, mother and grandmother. Joan was always doing for others. Joan's sense of humor brightened the lives of all who met her. Joan's family will carry fond memories of her and she will be greatly missed by all.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Joan are her children: Mollie and husband, Steve Ragens; Cathy and husband, Augustine Gomez; Robert A. and spouse, Carmen Merryfield, Wendy Artiaga, Rick Merryfield Sr; grandchildren: Danny Ray Merryfield, Debbie Merryfield, Michael Arias, Brandon Merryfield, Anthony Merryfield, Junior Artiaga, Tiffany Artiaga, Andrew Artiaga, Cristina Merryfield, Crystal Merryfield, Robbie Merryfield, Ricky Dom Merryfield II, Erick Merryfield, Sally and husband, Joshua Cloonan, Natalie Gray, Nakoma Wilfong, Nathaniel and wife, Alicia; brothers: Manuel Trujillo, Fred Trujillo; and loving pets: Rex and Bambi. Preceding Lucy in death were her husband, Robert Ethen Merryfield; parents: Frutoso and Juanita Trujillo; and brothers: Henry Trujillo, and Orlando Trujillo. Lucy's family would like to extend a Special Thanks to Kindred Hospice. Thanks to Jehovah God, through Jesus ransom sacrifice. We look forward to the hope in the Bible at John 5;28, 29. Lucy's tribute was lovingly written in her honor by her family.

“ Hi, grandma. You've been on my mind every day since you've been gone. I am 13, soon to be 14. Nana, Uncle Rick, and Uncle Robert are well. They miss you so much. Aunt Wendy passed too, and I miss you both so much. I miss visiting after school and leaving with a piece of jewelry you'd let me pick out from you. I cannot wait to see you happy, healthy, and free in paradise. Love you with all of my soul grandma.

“ Mom I will miss you all the times we had fun when I was little, planting trees, motorcycle riding around you. The many times you have helped me to become a person of integrity and compassion. I miss the times you called to check on us in Dallas. The way you called me "Robert Allen Merryfield!," I knew I was in trouble. The way you fixed my finger after Dad accidentally smashed it, and then he was in trouble. Seeing all your grandkids show love toward you and Dad. I miss you both. Rest in Peace my loving mother you and dad have a coffee together and Ill see you again. Love You Mom.

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of aunt Joan's family. Some of my fondest childhood memories come from my weekends spent with uncle Bob and aunt Joan when they lived in Wisconsin before they had kids of their own. They were meant to be great parents! She will be missed.

“ Love you mom, I will miss you so much. You were always the one that checked on me daily to make sure I was doing good. I'm going to miss those calls from you, and being able to see you every weekend. I know you and dad are smiling and holding each other now. But here were left grieving on this earth. Till we meet again mom, hope you come visit me in my dreams. Love you Infinity :(

“ To be absent from the body is to be in the presence of God. That is his promise to us. To rejoice that she is in his Kingdom free from pain and discomfort.

Mom is happy, renewed again, and is with her mom and dad, smiling that beautiful smile when she sees Bob, the love of her life. We send love and comfort to all. Even though we are far away, all are in our hearts. Love, Mollie, Steven, and all our family.
