

Joyce E. Dehnen

January 5, 1944 - April 18, 2026

Joyce “Jodi” Madron Dehnen was born January 5, 1944, to Ernest and Ruby Madron in Casa Grande, Arizona. While a young child, her family moved to New Mexico.

She graduated “Artesia High School” in 1961. During her high school years, she worked at Palace Drug Store after school and on weekends. After graduation, she went to work for AT&T Telephone Company.

On September 28, 1963, she married Richard Anderson who was stationed in Roswell, New Mexico with the U.S. Air Force. Richard was from Santa Ana, California. Jodi transferred there with AT&T. Jodi and Richard divorced in 1976.

On February 14, 1979, she married John Dehnen in Reno, Nevada. John also worked for AT&T. During 1992, Jodi retired from AT&T, left John and California. She moved back to Artesia, New Mexico to be near her family. In 2016 she was injured in an automobile accident and has lived at Mission Arch Nursing Home since.

Jodi was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest and Ruby Madron, brother, Rickey Lee Madron, and Stepfather J.P. Clapp.

She is survived by many relatives who love her dearly, including her very special friend, of over 60 years, Jennie Rohr. Jodi wanted to thank all her family and friends who sent cards, gifts, phone calls, visited, and prayed for her.

A graveside service will be held at 10:00 AM, Saturday, April 25, 2026, at South Park Cemetery, Roswell, New Mexico. Arrangements are under the care of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home in Roswell, New Mexico.
