“ I went to Miss Lee's Beauty School with Joyce and kept in touch with her off and on through the years until I left Roswell in 1990. Once when she left Roswell she rented me her booth. She was such a nice person and a talented cosmetologist. I am so sorry to hear about your loss.

“ It is very hard to put into words the heartfelt sympathy that I feel for Joyce's passing. I truly believe that she is definitely in a much happier and better place. She will be terribly missed by all but the wonderful memories will always be there for us. I will remember her outer beauty and the graciousness that she poised. In God's love My sincerest condolences .

“ Dear Debra and Pamela, Just a note to tell you how sorry I am to hear about your Mom, Francine mailed a note to me yesterday; and although a long time and distance has passed since we last saw each other, I did think of Joyce often. She was always my favorite aunt, and one that I could call friend as well as family. Please except my condolences for your loss. Cliff
