Please share your thoughts and memories with the family in the online register book at andersonbethany.com. A mother, a grandma too This is the legacy we have from you

You taught us love and how to be kind You gave us strength, you gave us mind

You had many things to say Always in a caring way

You always saw good in everyone No matter what they'd done

You always knew the way we felt You used the words you knew would heal

You were beautiful with your shiny silver hair Always patient and always did care

Telling us all, God will never give you more than you can handle Just pray, keep your faith and light a candle

We will shed tears now that your have gone But in our hearts, your memories and your spirit will live on

“ The death of people who are close and dear to us is one of the most difficult trials sent to us by God during this temporary life. There are no tears more bitter than the tears of a family for their beloved mother of their hearts who passes away. What sorrow can we compare to the sorrow of a grieving family.

We send our condolence to Eddie Romero and his family.

You need not worry yourselves, shed not your tears today, for your mother is in heaven, looking down at all of you, with a smile.

Con Dios Siempre
