“ Kathryn I was sorry to read of your mother's passing. Even though we have not been in contact for sometime I still think of your family often. Little things trigger memories, like when my nephew plays his clarinet, or when I drive by Terra Street.

I don't know if she realized it, but your mother was a positive influence in my life. One of my lasting memories(even though I didn't really understand at the time) was her prayer every time we got into the car to go somewhere. Now when I have my nephews or neices in the car, or kids from church, or if I am by myself, I ask the Lord to go with us. I am thankful for her example. I displayed my email, so you can contact me if you want to. I would like to hear from you, when you are ready Again I am sorry for your loss. Kelly
