“ Ken was one of the best friends a person could wish for. When I didn't have the nerve to teach my two daughters how to drive, Ken stepped right up to the task, resulting in two very good drivers. My mom lived in Artesia, about 45 miles south of Roswell and when she would come visit me, Ken would drive over, pick her up and take her to the airport in Roswell, making sure she made her flight. when she returned, he would pick her up and take her home. Friends like that are rare. Rest peacefully brother.

Jay, I am his niece. He was with me when I test drove my first car. Did he tell your daughters that there was a reason for the peddle on the left? Lol He was my Hero.

“ Ken was a very good friend to my dad (Jay Long) and our family. I know my sister and I are quite thankful for his patience in teaching us to drive. I'm sure our parents appreciated not having to be in the car with the two of us behind the wheel. Ken was loved and will be missed by many people. My condolences to Marie. -Nikki (Long) Lincoln

“ Ken was a close friend and one of my favorite instructors on the VC-135B at Andrews AFB. I helped him relocate to Roswell, NM after his retirement - he drove the moving truck and I followed in his pickup. I will miss him, but I also honor his memory. RIP, Ken.

“ Ken was a phenomenal friend that I had the pleasure of meeting in Roswell on the antique scene. He was down to Earth and a pleasure to be around. He found happiness in his surroundings and always shared his cheerfulness with others around him. Over time, I lost contact with him, but thought of him & Marie often. So sad that he has passed on... But I'm sure he is in a good place. Prayers to the family, Jesse Whiteraven Williams.

Ken was a great help to me at Andrews when I relocated and began flying with the squadron. Rest well Ken. Reach out and touch the hand of God.

“ Ken was a trusted friend and mentor during our time together at Andrews AFB, MD. His stories of hunting for rare and collectable items and showing me how to bargain for the best deals are great memories for me. Rest in Peace, Ken.
