“ Our love, sympathy and condolences go out to the Emmons Family, extended family and close friends over the death of Leroy. He fought a hard, valiant, and courageous battle with his cancer. Leroy loved life, family, and friends and entrusted his care to his oldest brother, Rick. And what a fine job he did in seeing to Leroy's health and needs. Leroy and I e-mailed many times, many different times through the night/early a.m. Leroy knows I loved him and kept him in my prayers along with the rest of his family. Our loss is Leroy's gain, he's in no more pain, darkness, or discomfort; for he's gone to his eternal home, home with God and Jesus, Heaven is now his address. Your presence will be missed and you will no longer be at our table, you will be at the Lord's table. (Mind your manners..) Make guitar strings ring in Heaven, you are now with some of the best! Much Love and Regards, Vicki and Tommy Parker

“ There was a time I loved Kenneth very dearly. And he always holds a special place within me. I lost contact with him several years ago, after he sold his iron shop and went to explore the world! We did talk on the phone a few times from wherever he was at the time. Then I stopped hearing from him, and I'm so sorry that this was why. I just always figured I'd hear from him again, I'm very sad knowing I wont. To the people who loved him and took care of him, thank you and bless you. He was very special, and I'll always remember him, and his guitar!!!
