Five Minutes

If I only had five minutes the day you passed away, I would have had time to tell you all the things I needed to say.

I never got to tell you how much you mean to me, Or that you were the best dad, better than any man could be.

The last time that I talked to you I wish I would have known. I would have said I love you, and kept you on the phone.

If I only had five minutes, the morning you passed away, I'd give you one last hug so tight and see your great big smile. I'd tell you that I don't think I could live without you, not even for awhile. I'd kiss your cheek and take your hand and tell you it's okay to go And tell you that I'll miss you, more than you'll ever know.

But you were gone so quickly, One last car ride you'd take. Before you even knew it, you were standing at heavens gate. Now God has called upon you, It's time to get your wings. To leave this life behind you, And enjoy all of heavens beautiful things. So wait for me in heaven Dad, Don't let me come alone. The day the angels come for me, Please be there to bring me home.

“ I was so shocked to see that Michael's name was in the paper! I am so sorry to hear that you have lost a wonderful husband,Dad, grandad, and friend to all of us. I can see him and my Dad in heaven already solving the world's problems as he use to say and they're having a great time waiting for us. Michael was very good to my parents and I always appreciated his mannerisms and caring that he showed everyone he knew. If you need anything please let me know and I will check on you soon.
