December 21, 1979 - November 21, 2025

Kevin Martinez also known as “Kane” 45 passed away Friday November 21, 2025 in Eastern New Mexico medical center. Kevin was born on December 21, 1979 in Artesia, NM to Rosemary Bustamante and Juan Martinez. Kevin had such an amazing personality, he enjoyed laughing, and joking around. He was very protective over the people he loved. Kevin had such a caring heart and always put people first, he would give the shirt off his back for anyone in need. Kevin was the life of the party, people would always say he was one of a kind. Kevin had a heart for music and he loved food, he enjoyed traveling to new places, he loved spending time at the casino, he loved watching his favorite football team Patriots, and he loved spending time and going out with his family and friends. Most of all he enjoyed being a dad to his sons, it brought him so much joy watching them grow up. As many as you know Kevin was fighting his battle against cancer, his niece Maylani and his son Kash gave him lots of motivation, and hope to keep fighting but unfortunately his battle came to an end, but he fought hard. In our eyes he has won and he will be dearly missed by so many and with forever remain in our hearts.
