“Ode to a Brother and Son Lost”

If I could have just one more day, Alone, to spend with you; We'd do the things we'd always planned, But never got to do. We'd play the cards we never played, I'd take that walk with you; And about that rift between us, Bro, We'd bury that thing, too. I'd thank you for just being there, When bullies were around; And over look the times when It was you who knocked me down If I could have just one more day To share some joy or tears; I'd take that day and hope That it would last a hundred years
Love always, All Your Family

“ Our deepest sympathy to all his family, and to (Eric Zien). Knowing Kevin was a joy and a blessing all rolled into one! He will be missed the most; by those who really knew and loved him, for himself! Would have loved to say goodbye; but can do that myself-where Kevin and I spent most our time(out in God's garden-where he now is in peace). Now that he is with God; let him look down and be smiling over all those that he....loved! God Bless!

“ I was very very sad to hear this and I am even sadder that there was no funeral for whoever wanted to go so I could of seen him one last time. I wish I could of said goodbye to him some how, some way. I will miss him in one of the deepest corners of my heart for a very long time. Rest in peace now Kevin, no one can hurt you anymore. Much Love, Zana
